GIVING DAY

Families in our communities are facing decisions no parent should have to make: whether to pay rent or buy groceries, whether to miss work to care for a child, whether to ask for help or try to survive one more day alone. This is happening right here in our backyards every day. We know. We see it, and the window to intervene is short. When support arrives at the right moment, it can prevent a family from being in a long-term crisis. This is why Family Promise continues to offer a special Giving Day. We want to support you in bringing the community together to meet the unmet needs of families in your area.

Giving Day is not about solving everything at once. It is about coming together for collective impact. A single contribution can cover a gap that keeps a family housed, a child in school, or a parent employed. The needs are urgent, but so is the opportunity to respond. When your Affiliate joins Giving Day, we come together to create collective impact, and that's the kind of impact we cannot wait for. The theme this year is Every Family Deserves a Place to Call Home.
